Prologue

â€¦

On the planet Agolis...

As I lie in pain on the ground in agony I remembered her the one who I let die â€¦. the one who told me to be human. Ever since that day after she died I was nothing more than a ghost just a shell of a man... I was not going to allow the same fate as her befall my men.

â€¦

The mission had been simple initiate Cole protocol , as well as evacuating the remaining civilians. Cole protocols were to be enacted on the MJOLNIR mark 3.5 armor the scientists had made a breakthrough right after the completion of the mark VI . They had discovered that using covenant reverse-engineered tech they could create mini fusion reactors. Enough energy could be produced to power the mark 3 as well as some acquired covenant shielding technology, but at a cost the suit would only function for about 15 minutes. The scientists disregarded this and dubbed the project mark 3.5 the project was deemed to dangerous to fall into enemy hands.

This is where ghost's squad had come in, they were to destroy the suit and all relating data. The mission was extremely dangerous and ghost's squad had come in, ONI thought that ghost would be willing to sacrifice his men for the mission...how wrong they were.

â€¦...

I got up writhing in agony determined to see the mission through to the end to not let any thing stop me from achieving my goal.

"Countdown complete voice command required . State the command exactly as it is displayed".

I looked up at my final view of life 6 grunts and 1 elite. Ironical that the covies would be the last thing I saw. Then I remembered her one last time "I need you to be strong strong enough to do something that you've never done in your life. Can you be strong enough to â€¦.. can you just be human".

I smiled in my helmet "Voice command authorization... Be human" .And for one last instant I'm human again. Then the explosion over took him. And into the howling black he went but then he realized he saw something...light.

To be continued

â€¦.

Authors notes

Well guys this is my first fanfic so give me all the criticism I deserve. This is an idea I've had in my head for awhile but just now started. I do need to know a few things please message me or put this in the review sections but here are my questions

Should ghost go to a forerunner planet and get advanced tech before going into the me universe?

Should humanity be around at all in ME?

Should halo tech be better than ME tech?

End
file.
